REIKI WORKSHOP 1st Degree

Energy Healing

What is Reiki?

Reiki is a method of promoting relaxation with the aim of reducing stress.

Reiki was rediscovered in Japan, as a means of healing through the hands of the practitioner.

Reiki has become a popular means of Energy Healing throughout the world.

When you study Reiki it will provide for an insight into this form of Energy Healing.

The Reiki practitioner connects with the Universal Life Force Energy and through open heart intent the energy that flows through all people connects and the healing begins to manifest.

What Reiki Practitioners Do?

Reiki practitioners when providing and connecting the Healing Energy to an individual when assisting in the healing process will note a sensation of the energy which flowing through their hands.

Reiki is nature and non—evasive, one key note that Reiki shares with modern Medicine and Science is that Reiki Practitioners acknowledge that the human body is made of energy and when that energy becomes blocked it creates illness into the body such as discomfort or disease.

The freeing of this blocked energy, reducing stress, and provides relaxation, thus creating a
